

Driver Training Bursary Application Form

Section 1 – Program Summary

The Take the Wheel Drivers Training Bursary provides youth in and from care between the ages of 16 and 24, support to get their Class 7 (novice or N) license in BC. The bursary awards youth up to $1500 to cover the cost of a professional driver's training course or package. The Take the Wheel Driver Training Bursary is funded by the Ministry of Children and Family Development (MCFD) and is administered by the Federation of BC Youth in Care Networks. The Take the Wheel Driver's Training Bursary will award 48 bursaries over the course of 2018-2019.

Please complete all necessary sections of this application. Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Note: If you are a youth in and from care between the ages of 16 and 18, in order for you to be eligible for a Take the Wheel Driver Training Bursary, you must provide proof that you have requested your social worker cover the costs of a driver's training program and that they are unable to do so.

It will take between 4-6 weeks after the application submission deadline for applicants to hear back from us regarding the status of their application. It will take an additional 4-6 weeks for successful candidates to be notified that their bursary funds have arrived at their chosen driving school.
